CARL AND LILLIAN EGGERT BROWN AND THEIR COLLECTION OF LOCAL HISTORY AND GENEALOGY AT THE MILAN PUBLIC LIBRARY, MILAN, MICHIGAN

By Martha Churchill

Lillian and Carl Brown created a fantastic genealogy research center at the Milan Public Library in Milan, Michigan. The center contains "The Lillian Eggert Brown Local History and Genealogy Collection" named after her in honor of the vast contributions of research material and aids donated by Lillian and her husband Carl. The area covered by their research collection is much more than Milan. Milan is in both Washtenaw County and Monroe County and the Browns collected much of their materials for individuals living in Milan and neighboring areas within those counties including locations such as Britton, Ridgeway, Mooreville, Azalia, Cone, Grape, Saline, Willis, Dundee, Oakville, Raleighville, Nora, Urania, Whittaker, and Rea. The collection also contains items of genealogical interest from neighboring counties.

Lillian and Carl Brown were longtime Milan residents. After raising their three children in Milan, Lillian and Carl moved to Dundee, Michigan where she worked as a teller for the Monroe County Bank. Both of them were involved in civic activities in Dundee. Lillian belonged to the Pythian Sisters, was a Camp Fire leader, president of the Stowell Mother's Club, and she was an organizer for a women's exhibit at the Monroe County Fair. Carl was a member of the Dundee Township Planning Commission and the Optimist Club. He was also a 4-H leader and belonged to the Lincoln Continental Restorers (car club).

Lillian was bitten by the genealogy bug while living in Dundee. She submitted her own family chart to the Old Mill Museum there. In 1978, Lillian joined the Genealogical Society of Monroe County as a charter member and they were both early members of the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, Carl was member number 19 and Lillian was member number 21. Lillian's interest in genealogy was not just to collect information on her own family, her interest expanded into making locally found genealogical records available for others. Carl shared the same interest and one of his early projects was creating an index of the Monroe County marriage records from the 19th century.

Lillian and Carl moved back to Milan after she retired from the bank. They established a real estate business in Milan and became reinvolved in Milan's local civic activities. He joined the Milan Rotary Club, and she joined the Milan Woman's Club, a civic organization.

Now resettled in Milan, Lillian lavished attention on genealogy reference books for the Milan Public Library. Lillian's project started in 1980 after finding that several longtime Milan area residents had collected news items and put them into scrapbooks. Upon gaining permission from their owners, she made photocopies of these historic scrapbook pages, including birth announcements, buildings being constructed, marriage ceremonies, people hurt in horse-carriage accidents, grocery store openings, and obituaries. She organized and placed the photocopies into books, starting with "Book 1" [Aid to Genealogists: Volume 1] in 1980.

The miraculous part of her effort was the index. She went through each scrapbook article and noted the names mentioned in the news stories, one by one, and indexed them by last name. The index idea is huge. A researcher does not have to read an entire book of news snippets to find someone's name buried on page 52. All one needs to do is check for the person by last name in the index, and voilà. As Milan's historian, the Browns' genealogy index was fabulous for my research, going back sometimes to the 1800s. Carl assisted his wife with the index to the books, typing names in the index, as directed by his wife. According to their daughter, Marilyn Wisner, Carl used some kind of computer that was available in those days to type the names for the index.

Soon Lillian got her hands on the original, pen-and-ink handwritten coroner's report from 1895 to 1904. The coroner at that time was Charles Wilson, Milan's flour mill owner. A clear photocopy of the entire record book includes cemetery and next-of-kin information. It's all bound into a book at the Milan library, thanks to Lillian Brown with the assistance of Carl. The beauty of this coroner's record is the index that Lillian created. Each person is listed, in alphabetical order by last name, with the page number where the person's name appears.

Volume 1 and the coroner's record were quickly followed by more books, each of them indexed separately. The scrapbooks contained some of the darndest things, not just obituaries. Did you know, the Stimpson Hotel was started and completed all in the summer of 1901? That little tidbit is found in Volume 5, page 140.

Volume 6 contains some gems contributed by Maude Culver Greenfield. She was a newspaper reporter for several Milan area newspapers, as well as the Saline and Ann Arbor papers. Greenfield lived from 1881–1950, so her news clipping books were rich with history, including anniversaries, house fires, store openings, and criminal arrests. Lillian developed Volume 6 in 1989. The book's preface says Carl did the indexing and typing for the project.

In July 1994, when Volume 8 was dedicated, the preface states that Carl Brown put the book together by himself while Lillian was "recuperating from a memory altering illness suffered in 1990." Carl produced Volume 9 in May 1995, again commenting that Lillian suffered from a memory illness. That was the last genealogy book produced by either of the Browns. Lillian died Oct. 31, 1998 and Carl followed her on August 4, 2006.

More than 10 years after Volume 9, Millard Phillips, a lifelong resident of Milan and its first city mayor, decided to carry on the Browns' work by producing a series of indexed books containing the library's obituary collection. The first book Phillips provided was "Volume 10" [Aid to Genealogists: Volume 10] in October 2008. His preface indicates he was helped by Alexandrine (Ninotti) Sanford and Michelle Sawicki. Each book created by Phillips contains an alphabetical index by last name. The people covered by the obituaries come from an area of at least three counties—Lenawee, Monroe, and Washtenaw—and a variety of newspapers. The last volume in the Milan Library is Volume 17, dedicated by Phillips in March 2009, containing obituaries with surnames from S-Z.

Millard Phillips, perhaps inspired by the Browns, became the driving force in the continued development of the genealogical resources available at the Milan Public Library and personally contributed numerous genealogical resources, including several family histories and photocopies of diaries.

The Milan Public Library has many other genealogy resources including yearbooks, telephone directories, land records, church histories, cemetery readings, and a large collection of old photographs of local persons and businesses. Carl and Lillian Brown's vast contribution of genealogical records and the additional untiring work and materials provided by Millard Phillips are invaluable assets to the Library as well as family researchers.

POLL LISTS, YPSILANTI TOWNSHIP AND VILLAGE, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN, 1837
(Part One)

Transcribed by Nancy H. Krohn

Among the earliest extant poll lists for Washtenaw County are two 1837 lists for Ypsilanti Township and Village found in the Washtenaw County, Michigan records, at Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan and are printed courtesy of the library. Michigan achieved statehood on January 26, 1837 and these elections were held later that year. On August 21st and 22nd, representatives to Congress were elected while representatives to the state legislature, state officers and various county officers were elected on November 6th and 7th.

For ease of searching, the two lists are combined and sorted alphabetically by surname. The August list has 392 names and the November list has 540. The original lists were ordinally numbered with the given name followed by surname. The August poll is signed by four inspectors: H. Compton, G. McAlaster, John Rorison, and Nathan Comstock. The November poll does not list inspectors and the name of the clerk does not appear on either list. Spelling remains as found on the original although poor penmanship of the poll recorder as well as condition of the document made it very difficult to decipher several of the names.

Code: AUG.xxx = Poll List August 21 & 22, 1837.ordinal number on original list.
NOV.xxx = Poll List November 6 & 7, 1837.ordinal number on original list.

LIBRARY REPORT

Submitted by Barbara Snow, Librarian

The GSWC recently purchased six new books for the joint GSWC/LDS library to help you with your research.

977.435/A/Nenadic Nenadic, Susan L. A Purse of Her Own: Occupations of Women in the Nineteenth Century, (Privately published, 2013.)

The title comes from an 1853 quote by Susan B. Anthony: "A woman must have a purse of her own." Using well-told stories of Washtenaw County women who earned "extra" money or were self-supporting during a century when opportunities for women were limited, the author illustrates the various ways 19th century women could find employment. An index at the end can be used to determine if your ancestress is profiled, but even if not, the insights might be applied women in general. A fun read, filled with useful information about the lives of women in the 19th century.

977.428 A Boyd Boyd, Gregory A. Family Maps of Jackson County, Michigan: with Homesteads, Roads, Waterways, Towns, Cemeteries, Railroads and More, Deluxe Edition. (Norman, Oklahoma: Arphax Publishing Co., 2006.)

977.436 A Boyd ----. Family Maps of Livingston County, Michigan: with Homesteads, Roads, Waterways, Towns, Cemeteries, Railroads and More, Deluxe Edition. (Norman, Oklahoma: Arphax Publishing Co., 2007.)

977.431 A Boyd ----. Family Maps of Lenawee County, Michigan: with Homesteads, Roads, Waterways, Towns, Cemeteries, Railroads and More, Deluxe Edition. (Norman, Oklahoma: Arphax Publishing Co., 2006.)

977.426 A Boyd ----. Family Maps of Ingham County, Michigan: with Homesteads, Roads, Waterways, Towns, Cemeteries, Railroads, and More. (Norman, Oklahoma: Arphax Publishing Co., 2007.)

977.438 A Boyd ----. Family Maps of Oakland County, Michigan: with Homesteads, Roads, Waterways, Towns, Cemeteries, Railroads, and More. (Norman, Oklahoma: Arphax Publishing Co., 2009.)

Our goal is to house a comprehensive research collection for Washtenaw County and as many published works on adjacent counties as possible. The "Family Maps" series put out by Arphax Publishing Co. documents the land ownership of first landowners, i.e. those people who purchased land from the federal government. Each volume is divided into two parts. Part I is titled "The Big Picture" and provides maps and surnames of first landowners for the whole county. Part II is titled "Township Map Groups" and includes 3 maps for each township and an index of land patents for that township. To clarify, township in this context refers to the Congressional township (a surveyed 6 miles by 6 miles square block of land resulting in a 36-square-mile parcel), not the civil townships created through legislation. The boundaries of some civil townships neatly match the boundaries of Congressional townships, but sometimes not. Congressional or survey townships are named by survey designation, e.g. T5S R1E; civil townships have names, e.g. Leoni Township.

The GSWC library also holds the Family Maps book for Washtenaw County. None have yet been published for Wayne and Monroe Counties.

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S BAPTISMAL RECORDS, 1847–1875, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN
(Part Twelve)

Translated & transcribed by Rob Steward, 2017

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. It is our understanding that he kept notes as he traveled and then entered them into his record books when he returned home. This may explain that while the records are fairly complete there are some gaps or omissions.

We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings. The term "geb." in relation to a female name, refers to "born as" or maiden name. A "+" sign or cross at the beginning or end of a line was later added to the original record to indicate the person is deceased. A "-?-" indicates the specific entry was illegible.

Rev. Schmid's Baptismal Records are in column format as follows:
(Left hand pages – a.) "Chronological Number" of the child for that particular year; Name of Child; Parents Names; Place; Birth Date.
(Right hand pages – b.) Baptismal Date and Place; Sponsors Names (sometimes marital status or relationship of the sponsors are listed).
Columns with no entry or missing information are indicated by three hyphens (---).

ARTHUR L. REED AND MARY A. LAMBORN FAMILY BIBLE RECORD

This Bible record is from the Louis White Collection at the Ypsilanti Historical Society Museum, Ypsilanti, Michigan. Louis White compiled several family histories while serving as the first historian for the City of Ypsilanti. The Ypsilanti Historical Society has generously donated copies of the Bible records in the collection to the GSWC Bible Records Registry and given permission to the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County to publish the records.

The Bible was printed by American Bible Society of New York, 1872. Mr. White copied the record in 1959 at which time the Bible was owned by Mrs. Hazel Cullis of Ypsilanti.
